

For Immediate Release
March 26, 2021

Contact: Charles Scribner, executive director, Black Warrior Riverkeeper: (205) 458-0095, info@blackwarriorriver.org

Earthbound's Earthfest Celebrates Black Warrior Riverkeeper on September 19

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Sunday, September 19, 2pm to sundown, Earthbound headlines Earthbound's Earthfest, the rock band's annual outdoor concert at Avondale Brewery (21 41st St S, Birmingham, AL 35222). The event benefits Black Warrior Riverkeeper, a nonprofit clean water advocacy organization protecting Alabama's Black Warrior River watershed.

The family-friendly outdoor event is open to pets and people of all ages, although guests under 21 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Suggested $5 donations at the door will support Black Warrior Riverkeeper, as will the proceeds from merchandise, art, beer, and food trucks. The event's top sponsor this year is Skates 280.

"Earthbound's Earthfest normally takes place in the spring on the Saturday closest to Earth Day, and we have never done it on a fall Sunday," said Charles Scribner, executive director of Black Warrior Riverkeeper. "The last edition of Earthbound's Earthfest occurred way back in April of 2019, so we are excited to return to Avondale Brewery's spacious backyard, enjoy great music and promote clean water."

To visit the Facebook event page for Earthbound's Earthfest 2021, click here.

To view John Kinney's high-resolution picture from Earthbound's Earthfest 2019, click here.

To view Wolf Creek Creations' high-resolution poster for Earthbound's Earthfest 2021, click here.

###

Black Warrior Riverkeeper's mission is to protect and restore the Black Warrior River and its tributaries. The citizen-based nonprofit organization promotes clean water for improved public health, recreation, and wildlife habitat throughout the Black Warrior River watershed. Learn more at BlackWarriorRiver.org.